Thanks for taking the time to find out about the wonderful things going on in your area. We hope that find this brochure useful and we welcome any feedback you may have on it.

If you are interested in participating in Wonderful Walworth 2012 or in finding out any more information about Wonderful Walworth 2011, please contact info@pembrokehouse.org.uk or call 0207 703 3803.

Welcome to the 2011 guide to Wonderful Walworth!

Please let me introduce myself as Walworth- your local 'hood! I have many sides, nooks and crannies, and am an area tremendously rich in history, culture and life! I hope you already agree, but if not please read on and I will share my community treasures with you...

The map (pages 12-13) and the community directory (pages 10-15) that you hold in your hands demonstrates the wealth of community resources and activities on your doorstep. The section on regular activities and special events exhibits the diversity of activities on offer, from urban food foraging walks to Latin American drumming classes. With such a interesting mix of activities, I feel confident that I can offer something to suit your taste. However, in the event that you feel there is nothing available that matches your interests – please do get in touch so that we can work together to create new opportunities in the area.

This Wonderful Walworth guide was produced as part of the Wonderful Walworth Day - a community celebration of the area, which happened on Saturday 16th July 2011 at Pembroke House in Walworth. The first Wonderful Walworth celebration took place in 2009 and was hosted by Inspire. Wouldn't it be great if Wonderful Walworth became an annual mobile festival, hosted by a different community venue each year? If you think so and are interested in making this happen, please don't hesitate to get in touch with previous Wonderful Walworth organisers (Inspire and Pembroke House) for support and tips.

I hope that you find the guide of use and welcome any feedback you have on it. Please send all constructive feedback to wonderfulwalworth@gmail.com.

I hope you enjoy exploring your 'hood

Best Wishes

Your Local Neighbourhood

July

Pictures, Places & People: Elephant to Camberwell

Saturday 28 May to Saturday 29 October 2010

The Cuming Museum

Pictures, Places, People: Elephant to Camberwell explores the history of the area through the voices of its residents. The exhibition showcases paintings, photographs and prints drawn from the Southwark Art Collection and Local History Library. It includes images of buildings now lost to development or reused in new ways, street scenes showing long-gone shops and transport. The stories of local residents are central to the exhibition which has been developed with groups and Blackfriars Settlement, Inspire, Southwark Pensioners Centre and Pembroke House.

SATURDAY 16th July
Coronet at Elephant and Castle

Elefest, held in the Coronet, aims to celebrate the vast cultural diversity of the area with films from Nigeria, Bangladesh, Colombia and Ireland. The final day of this free film festival will see the following films being shown:

6:15pm: La Primera Noche (First Night): 2003, Colombia, 90 mins. Dir: Luis Albert Restrepo, Alberto Amaya

The First Night is a love story, which takes place in the heart of a society that has been shattered by war, violence and ignorance. Over the last 15 years, two million peasants in Colombia have been forced off their lands. Most of them have moved to big cities finding themselves in unfortunate economic, sociological and cultural conditions.

8:15pm: Babylon: 1980, UK, Cert 18, 95mins. Dir: Franco Rosso

A potent mix of music and social commentary Babylon presents a portrait of the young black community in London that differs from the tabloid stereotype. This is a story of ordinary young black guys at the sharp end of inner city survival, their lives hemmed in by the predictability of poverty, disillusion and the randomness of violence that can erupt at any time. A cult classic!

Film Premiere: Innovation in Mad Culture
Wednesday 20 July 2011, 6.30pm-9pm; screening at 7pm
South London Gallery, Clore Studio, 65 Peckham Road, London SE5 8UH

You are invited to the Film Premiere Innovation in Mad Culture – CoolTan Arts Largactyl Shuffle (named after an anti psychotic drug that has extreme physical side effects), followed by a panel discussion with CoolTan participants and speakers from the fields of arts and health/mental health. Join us in what promises to be an inspiring and engaging evening.

Free but RSVP essential – Please RSVP to info@cooltanarts.org.uk / 020 7701 2696.

Largactyl Shuffle Legacy Walk with CoolTan Arts
Saturday 23 July 2011, 12:00 noon
Hackney Museum, 1 Reading Lane, London, E8 1GQ

Join CoolTan Arts for an urban exploration walk of the area where the Olympics and Paralympics will take place in 2012; find out about the place, people and local community, and celebrate the Games and Olympic values and what they bring to the local community and the everyday lives of the people living in the Olympic boroughs. Experience the clash between the former industrial area and the funky artistic area that Hackney has become, and how it has changed with the preparations and construction for London 2012.

Come and join us on 23 July at 12:00 noon at the entrance of the Hackney Museum, 1 Reading Lane, London, E8 1GQ (near Hackney Central Station), and take part in this exciting walk! The walk will end at Pudding Mill Lane (access to DLR and local buses).

Thanks

Thank you to the following people and organisations for all of your help in putting together this guide and Wonderful Walworth Day 2011.:

Creation Trust, Inspire, 2Inspire, St Christopher's Church, Pembroke House, Pembroke Community Garden, Pembroke Youth Club, Pembroke Lunch Club, SE17 Food Cooperative, Cooltan Arts, Aylesbury Information and Guidance, Friends of Nursery Row Park, Music for Life, involuntarymovement, Tate Local (Lucy Harrison), MIA dancers, Surrey Square Primary School, Volunteer Centre Southwark, Friends of Burgess Park, People's Republic of Southwark, Pickling Peckham and more...

All of this good work would not have been possible without you and we are really thankful for your valuable contribution.

Apologies if we have not included your name or organisation – it is not because we did not appreciate your contribution but because there was a deadline with putting this to print and you must have contributed after that date!

TATE LOCAL at Pembroke House

Pembroke House Lunch Club trip to Tate Modern, photo by Lucy Harrison

This booklet was designed by artist Lucy Harrison, who is currently working with Tate Modern's Community & Regeneration team on a project at Pembroke House in Walworth this summer, and will be producing the September edition of the Tate Modern & You newsletter with groups who use Pembroke House and others in the local area.

Lucy would like local groups and individuals to contact her for the following:

TATE MODERN & YOU NEWSLETTER

Lucy would like content for the newsletter from local people. Please get in touch with your stories, interviews, ideas, walks, recipes, tips etc etc.

GIFT EXCHANGE

Groups are invited to take part in a Gift Exchange, where they provide a gift for another group and receive one back in return. Gifts should be given to Lucy by 15th August; an exchange event will take place to celebrate the project. Get in touch with Lucy:
